SUZANNE CARULO OF ARTISTIC MAG WILL PRESENT "CREATING CORPORATE AND OTHER NONPROFIT IN-KIND PARTNERSHIPS"

Suzanne Carulo of Artistic Mag, LLC will present "Creating Corporate and Other Nonprofit In-Kind Partnerships for the National Arts Marketing Project Conference." Suzanne Carulo, CEO of Artistic Mag will discuss (Why Partnerships are Created; Why Businesses Contribute to Nonprofit Partnerships; Types of Charitable Support; In-Kind/Non-Cash Statistics and Examples of In-Kind Partnerships)".

"One of the most intriguing elements of this discussion will be the statistics behind the In-Kind/Non-Cash studies. Knowing which business sectors are contributing to in-kind giving is essential knowledge to have prior to presenting an In-Kind Nonprofit Partnership. I look forward to sharing this knowledge and reviewing the steps in presenting such a proposal. Attendees will benefit from attending this session." commented Suzanne Carulo, CEO of Artistic Mag, LLC.

About Artistic Mag: Artistic Mag was formed in 2000 in Woodside, California and established a presence in Colorado in 2005. Artistic Mag was formed in response to the marketplace need of building community relations between corporations and the nonprofit art organizations.

Artistic Mag has worked with several organizations throughout the United States to create marketing campaigns and brand programs. It is dedicated to providing organizations with premium public & community relations solutions. The mission of Artistic Mag is to provide consultative services for organizations which will contribute to the community's development and growth.

Artistic Mag has a unique focus – building the business community relations with the arts and the nonprofits. By focusing on this unique ability, it will lead to better communities and corporate citizens. Together, it will improve social environments for everyone.
